

Transparency Report November 2019

Main take-aways of the month:

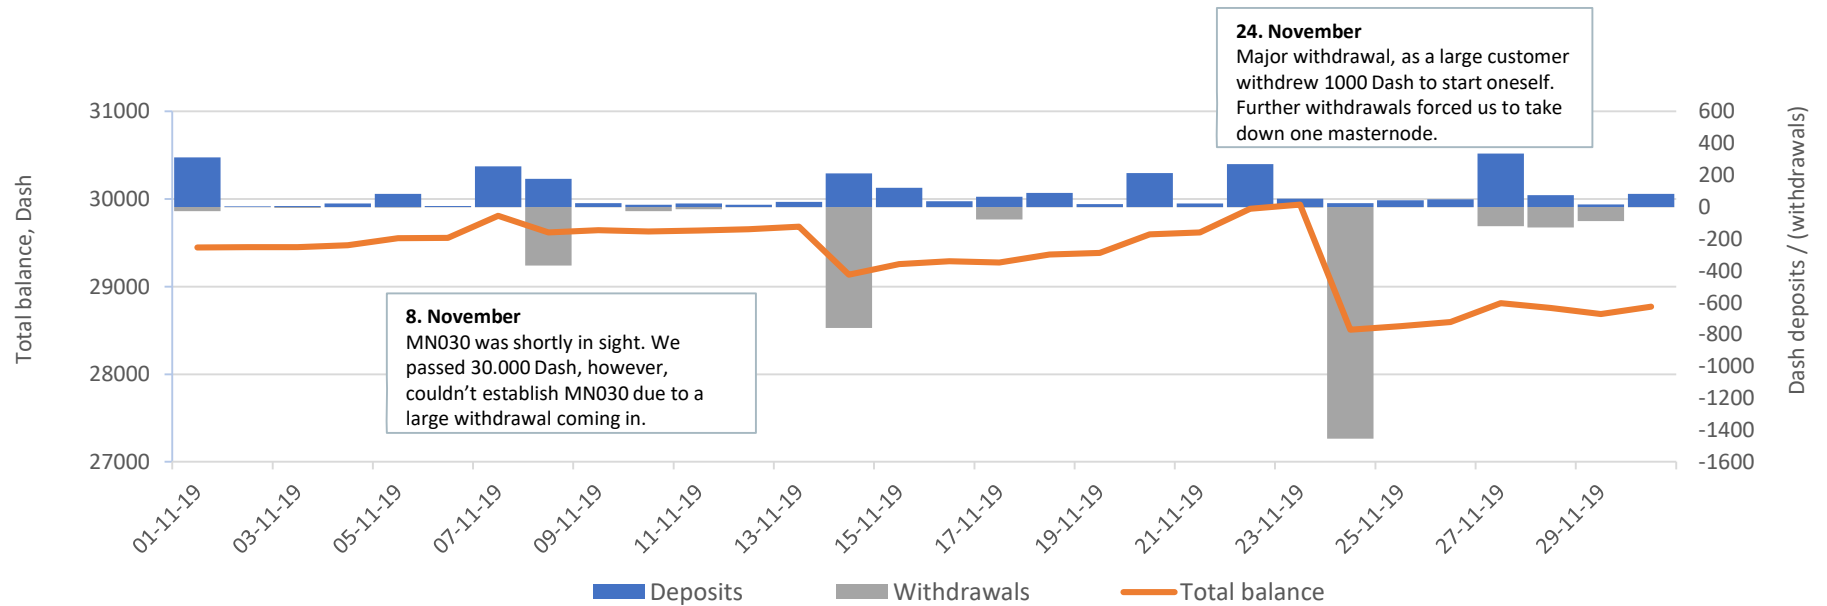

- Generally low activity
- A declining Dash rate had an impact on withdrawal rates
- For the first time in our history, we ended up with a net decline in the amount of active masternodes.

During November we had a lower than normal influx of funds, combined with a few very large withdrawals.

We even exceeded 30.000 Dash, however, due to a large withdrawal we couldn't spin up the yet unachieved milestone of masternode #30.
